Approaching Thanksgiving.

NICOLL'S methods are staunch as the Pilgrim's Thanksgiving.

(1.) Getting the best, brightest, and choicest make of goods to be had.

(2.) Making-to-measure honest qualities, goods that are stylish and not out of date.

(3.) Giving the best possible made-to-measure garment for cash, suppressing the evils of credit.

(4.) Counting friendly patrons by the thousands, with many stores in many cities.

(5.) Pleasing at any cost; doing with a little profit; not stopping short of a big business.

You have seen how it worked. It kept dull times from Nicoll's doors. It wouldn't if we hadn't made you gainers by it.

We have overcome slow trade—and you have saved money. Tyranny, Strife, Overcoats, to measure at prices you can afford.

To give full details of the goods which we shall offer in this sale would require more space than we have at our command. We will make the matter as brief as possible by saying that the choosing is as complete as any offering similar that ever came to our notice. Catalogues are now ready, and will be mailed to the trade generally who are interested in these wares.

Consequent upon the great amount of time and labor required to arrange a sale of this kind and magnitude it will not be possible for us to admit the trade for the purpose of inspecting this offering until 9 o'clock on the morning of the sale. We will also state in this connection that these premises, 247 and 249 Monroe-st., will be permanently occupied by us from and after January 1st, 1889.

Special Notice.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE FOR 1889

Ready Today.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

DECEMBER ATLANTIC

THE ATLANTIC FOR 1889

The following is a partial list of the features which will appear during the coming year:

THE RAILWAY ARTICLES. During the year three articles, which have appeared in letter papers and readers in the Magazine, will be continued. [illegible]

THE SERIAL. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S weird novel, "THE MASTER OF BALLANTRAE," which was begun in the November number, will continue through the greater part of 1889. It is the strongest and most remarkable romance he has written; and its masterly character drawing, with its stirring adventure and the continuous and changing movement of its plot, will increase the already great power of readers. Illustrated in each number by William Hole.

THE END PAPERS. The brief but pungent papers which during 1888 have been contributed by MR. STEDMAN, and have made so many readers turn with special enjoyment to the last page of the Magazine, will be continued in 1889 by a new and less commonly seen contributor, whose name will be announced before these papers begin. MR. THOMAS BAILEY ALDRICH writes the first for the January number.

ON ART SUBJECTS. An unpublished correspondence relating to JEAN FRANÇOIS MILLET and a famous group of modern French Pictures will furnish the subjects of several articles, with new and interesting illustrations, a paper by T. C. PERRY, upon the recent extraordinary discovery of Italian Byzantine Enamel Portraits in Florence, Rome, Ravenna and other cities of that country, by the Editor of Art; MR. CLARENCE COOK'S paper on Current Prints in Colors; MR. HASKELL'S account of his visit to Japan, and MR. WILLIAM ELLERY LEONARD on Japanese Art Symbols, the illustrative material for these two papers having been specially prepared in Japan.

ON BOOKS AND AUTHORS. Among the articles to appear on MR. WALTER BESANT'S methods of work, portions of the volume of the proof-sheets belonging to the MISS ANDREW D. WHITE; a paper on the Women and Classes of Charles Lamb; a second "Shelf of the Scribe," by MISS JAMES T. FIELDS, all fully illustrated.

FISHING ARTICLES. A group of articles describing the sport in the best fishing grounds in America, will be a feature of the year and numerous. MR. LEROY M. YALE and MR. [illegible] will write of the Wisconsin (the best-fished) streams of Lake St. John (Canada), illustrated by the author and other artists; MR. ROBERT GRANT will tell about Canoe Sailing in Canada; MR. [illegible] will be the subject of a well-known angler's paper; and a fourth article will describe fishing in the SOUTHERN MOUNTAINS—much game having many and spirited illustrations.

PHOTOGRAPHY, ELECTRICITY, MINING. Among the most interesting papers for the year will be a remarkable article by PROF. JOHN TROWBRIDGE, of Harvard University, upon the wonderful developments of Photography—elaborately and curiously illustrated; also a great many upon Electricity in its most varied applications, by specialists; a remarkable article on Deep Mining, with unique illustrations from photographs taken by magnesium flash lights, and other interesting papers.

SHORT STORIES will be a feature of Scribner's Magazine in future as in the past. Among the authors who will write are W. D. HOWELLS, SARAH ORNE JEWETT, OCTAVE THANET, A. T. SWEET, ROBERT GRANT, [illegible] MARGARET CROSBY, J. K. UNDERWOOD, BRANDER MATTHEWS, and many new writers.

IN GENERAL. The publishers of Scribner's Magazine are to make it the most popular and entertaining of periodicals, while at all times preserving its high literary character. Recent and coming fiction has been drawn to the Magazine during the past six months by the foremost exponents of its contents (mostly the leading writers), and it aims to exceed even with a new impetus and an enlarged number. The illustrations will show many new effects, and nothing to make Scribner's Magazine attractive and interesting will be neglected.

Splendid stock of Boys' Flannel Waists.

Saturday is usually a large reception day here for mothers and children and our children's department is so pleasantly situated—daylight at every angle, and an extensive and varied stock of large and small boys' clothing. Styles and prices to suit your ideas and purses, and the quality better than ever.

So with the men and young men. You'll see a multitude of them here today, after our winter clothing. No better goods, no better workmanship, and no better style to be found in ready-made clothing than in our winter stock.

Shoes and Rubbers—the good kinds only—at a less price than exclusive dealers.

House Coats and Smoking Jackets—the plain or the luxuriously trimmed.

Your choice of Neckwear almost unlimited.

Underwear, all makes of warm, woolly kinds, warm enough to let you smile at any nip in the weather.

We represent only the best makers of Hats—Silks, Derbys, Fedoras, Crushers, at close prices.

We've our basement full of Trunks, Traveling Bags, and Satchels.
